1.0 PURPOSE AND GOALS

This procedures manual of North Carolina Chapter of the American Fisheries Society (Chapter) provides guidance for conduct of the members, officers, and committee chair responsibilities in carrying out the business affairs and overall objectives of the Chapter. Specific conduct of Chapter business and authority are governed by the Constitution of the American Fisheries Society (Society) and the Chapter's Bylaws.

This procedures manual provides guidance to Chapter officers and committees by outlining their responsibilities and necessary deadlines. The manual is intended to be flexible so as to allow creativity and originality within each office or committee. Each officer and committee chair should review his or her section of the manual annually and recommend to the Executive Committee changes that may improve performance.

The objectives of the Chapter are those set forth in Article 1 of the Society's Constitution, especially to encourage exchange of information among Chapter members and to promote information exchange with North Carolina citizens (see Article 1 of the Chapter's Bylaws). Any changes in this procedures manual will be consistent with the Society's Constitution and the Chapter's Bylaws. The overall objective of these changes will be to pursue the goals and objectives of the Society and the Chapter as a whole.

Any Chapter member in good standing or a Committee Chair may request funding. A Chapter member can only make one funding request annually for an identified funded project. Funding requests from outside the Chapter, such as those from other units of the Society or other conservation organizations, can be considered subject to the availability of funds and other Chapter funding obligations as long as the requests are consistent with Chapter objectives.

It is preferable that resolutions be drafted within the context of Chapter Committees. Resolutions will be reviewed initially by the Executive Committee and pertinent Committee Chairs for approval prior to presenting the resolution at the annual Chapter business meeting.
